IMAGE WORKSHOPS

with a professional image consultant

INSTRUCTOR: YIFAT JOVANI - A PERSONAL STYLIST, COLOUR ANALYSIS CONSULTANT, AND SELF-IMAGE COACH.

Over her career, Yifat has presented her clothing brand at Vancouver Fashion Week and the Little Black Dress Gala. Her work has been featured in various magazines and newspapers. Today, through her specialized styling and colour expertise, she helps women break out of their style ruts, elevate their look, and feel comfortable in their own bodies.

BUSINESS ATTIRE

A MODERN TAKE TO BUSINESS ESSENTIALS

Shifting away from stiff, outdated corporate dress codes to modern, authentic professional dressing. This workshop focuses on the ultimate workplace staple—the blazer—as well as modern tailoring, the rules of business casual, and how to mix modern shoes and trousers so your outfits feel current and effortless.

WORK-READY STYLES

PARENTS RETURNING TO THE WORKFORCE

Bridging the gap between comfort-first casualwear and work-ready style. The focus here is on identity shift, body confidence, and efficiency—helping parents transition out of loungewear/home-mode into an updated workplace identity without sacrificing comfort or wasting hours getting ready.

FRESH EYES ON YOUR CLOSET

HOW TO SHOP YOUR CLOSET & MAXIMIZE YOUR OUTFIT OPTIONS

Sustainability, creativity, and learning how to look at your clothes with fresh eyes alongside shopping the stores smarter. Instead of just looking at what to buy, this workshop focuses on how to style what you already own and how to shop strategically to save time and money, avoiding unnecessary purchases.
